

TREATY WITH EL SALVADOR

MESSAGE

FROM

THE PRESIDENT OF UNITED STATES

TRANSMITTING

TREATY BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF
THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND
THE GOVERNMENT OF EL SALVADOR,
SIGNED ON 6/16/2019.

6/16/2019 - Referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations and ordered to be printed for the use of the Senate.

UNITED STATES
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE
WASHINGTON: 2019

LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

THE TRUMAN BUILDING, 6/16/2019.

To the Senate of the United States:

With a view to receiving the advice and consent of the Senate to ratification, I transmit herewith the Treaty between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of El Salvador, the Treaty of San Salvador, signed on the 6/16/2019. I also transmit, for the information of the Senate, the report of the Department of State with respect to the Treaty. I recommend that the Senate give early and favorable consideration to the Treaty, and give its advice and consent to ratification.

BAKEDGOODS.

LETTER OF SUBMITTAL

THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE
Washington, 6/16/2019.

THE PRESIDENT,
The White House.

THE PRESIDENT: I have the honor to submit to you the Treaty between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of El Salvador, the Treaty of San Salvador, signed on the 6/16/2019. This treaty will assure friendly relations and mutual recognition between our two nations. The Department of State favors approval of the Treaty by the Senate at the earliest possible date.

Respectfully submitted,

DavidTUnderwood

Enclosures: None attached.

The President of the United States, Secretary of State of the United States, and the Overseer of El Salvador to accredit the benefits of mutual cooperation, mutual recognition and a military partnership;

The President of the United States, Secretary of State of the United States, and the Overseer of El Salvador affirm that the two nations have similar values of democracy, international security and peace;

Upon the approval of the Senate of the United States and the Government of El Salvador, both nations shall swear the following:

- I. Political aid in all international organizations and events,
 - II. Establishment of a mutual commerce and trade agreement,
 - III. Military and defence cooperation, trainings, and pacts.
-

- (1) The Government of the United States of America and the Government of El Salvador shall, upon the passage of this treaty, henceforth be compelled to politically support & advocate for each other in all political organizations in which both nations mutually participate.
- (2) This treaty shall bind one another's nations in supporting each other politically and diplomatically during times of crisis, conflict, or war.
- (3) Political aid shall be defined as a country supporting their ally by publicly or privately advocating for their ally to others, while in addition voting in favor of each other's recognition in all international organizations.
- (4) Persons holding Citizenship within the United States of America shall be permitted to freely enter the sovereign territory of El Salvador and are henceforth obligated to adhere to and abide by all national and local laws, statutes, and regulations.
- (5) Persons holding Citizenship of the El Salvador shall be permitted to freely enter the sovereign territory of the United States of America and are henceforth obligated to adhere to and abide by all national and local laws, statutes, and regulations
- (6) The Government of the United States of America shall permit El Salvador businesses to freely enter the United States which shall have the ability to enter and participate in the United States' business and economic sectors.

- (7) The Government of El Salvador shall permit the United States' businesses to freely enter El Salvador which shall have the ability to enter and participate in El Salvador business and economic sectors.
- (8) The respective departments, ministries, and offices of the United States and El Salvador relating to trade, commerce, and the economy shall henceforth be willing to cooperate with one another.
- (9) The United States Armed Forces and El Salvador Armed Forces shall be authorized to schedule and organize joint training sessions, practice raids, and war games between the two.
- (10) Military cooperation shall be defined as openly allowing both the United States and El Salvador to host and conduct joint trainings, practice raids, and other friendly activities between both nation's defense departments.
- (11) Upon enactment of this treaty, the United States and El Salvador shall hereby be engaged in a defence pact by which both parties shall, in times of conflict and war, provide military support and response following the consent and approval of either government or legislature.

SIGNED, on the Sunday of June in the Year 2019 in the City of San Salvador, San Salvador, El Salvador, by representatives and witnesses of the Governments of the signatory states as follows:

ParentsAgainstRobIox
ParentsAgainstRobIox
Overseer of El Salvador

CharlesMontagu
CharlesMontagu
Under Secretary for Political Affairs

David T. Underwood
DavidTUnderwood
Secretary of State